RG104 E-1 Box 181

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., May 8, 1893.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have before me the rolls of your mint, belonging to your ordinary account, for the month of April 1893. I am astonished to find that extra compensation for work after hours has been allowed aggregating $870, and that most of it is in the general department.

I had thought that you had strict ordersthat extra time was not to be incurred and that payments for overwork were not to be allowed. It has been my effort to impress this on you, and I am no little surprised that the bars have been let down again.

I cannot imagine, with the amount of coinage you are doing, less now (in April) than at any recent period, why there should have been any occasion for extra work.

Before approving these rolls I will thank you to explain this overtime. you are hereby directed to discontinue all overtime and not to incur any expense for the same except in cases of extreme necessity, which are to be promptly brought to the attention of the Bureau at the time.

Very respectfully,

Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 181

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
May 8, 1893

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have before me the rolls of your mint, belonging to your ordinary account, for the month of April 1893. I am astonished to find that extra compensation for work after hours has been allowed aggregating $870, and that most of it is in the general department.

I had thought that you had strict orders that extra time was not to be incurred and that payments for overwork were not to be allowed. It has been my effort to impress this on you, and I am no little surprised that the bars have been let down again.

I cannot imagine, with the amount of coinage you are doing, less now (in April) than at any recent period, why there should have been any occasion for extra work.

Before approving these rolls I will thank you to explain this overtime. You are hereby directed to discontinue all overtime and not to incur any expense for the same except in cases of extreme necessity, which are to be promptly brought to the attention of the Bureau at the time.

Very respectfully,
E.O. Leech
Director.